

Short Biography

Ernesto J Morais, MScHEM, RN, CHN, Associate professor and researcher at Porto Nursing School - Portugal

Ernesto J Morais is a registered nurse with specialization in Community Health Nursing and masters in Health Economics and Management.

He is associate professor at Porto Nursing School in Portugal and researcher at its ICN-accredited Centre for Information Systems Research and Development, where he is responsible for the international collaborations on the development and implementation of nursing information systems.

He is member of the national coordinating group of the Ordem dos Enfermeiros (Portuguese Order of Nurses – national nursing and midwifery regulator and ICN member) responsible for the technical review and validation of the Portuguese versions of ICNP[®].

He is also member of the ICNP[®] Editorial Board and ICN representative at the WHO Family of International Classifications (WHO-FIC).