

Born in 1978 in Trabzon, Ms. Subař graduated from the Nursing School at Marmara University in 2001. She then received her graduate degree from the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, School of Health Sciences at Marmara University in 2004 and completed the MBA program at Maltepe University in 2009. After having started her career as a nurse in the Coronary Intensive Care Unit at Memorial Őiřli Hospital in 2001, Ms. Subař worked as a nurse in the General Intensive Care Unit at the International Hospital between 2003-2005. Then she joined Anadolu Medical Center between 2005-2015 where she respectively worked as a Supervisor Nurse, Manager at the Department of Neurosciences, Manager in charge of Training and Research and as Assistant Director at the Department of Patient Care and Nursing Services. Between 2015- 2021, Ms. Subař worked at Ankara Gven Hospital respectively as Quality and Training Nursing Services Manager, Nursing Services Coordinator and as Nursing Services Director. Ms. Subař is the Patient Care and Nursing Services Director at Anadolu Medical Center since September 21, 2021.