

Dr. Susan Fetzer is a Professor Emeritus at the University of New Hampshire, United States, having taught entry level to doctoral students for over 30 years. Her practice has included staff nurse, middle management and most recently the Director of Research at a recognized Magnet Hospital for 15 years. She has authored over 100 peer reviewed articles, book chapters and books. She has lectured world wide and holds a position as a Visiting Professor at the National Chen Kung University School of Nursing, Tainan Taiwan.